ABOUT US

THE CITY

Juiz de Fora is a great size city with over 600,000 inhabitants located in the “Zona da Mata Mineira”, southeast of Minas Gerais. The city is known for its quality of life and is reference in sectors such as education, with more than twenty higher education institutions, UFJF being the main one, and health, with a large network of medical and hospital care with an excellent service.

The city is located among the major capitals of the Southeast: Belo Horizonte, Rio de Janeiro and Sao Paulo. So you have several options to get here. Petropolis (Site of the Imperial Family’s Palace Museum) and Ouro Preto (a UNESCO World Heritage Site) are some of the many tourist cities in the region.

Most of UFJF students live in the city, which allows an intense social life in Juiz de Fora. Entertainment options are widely available for all tastes: theaters, cultural centers, museums, cinemas, restaurants, bars and night clubs.

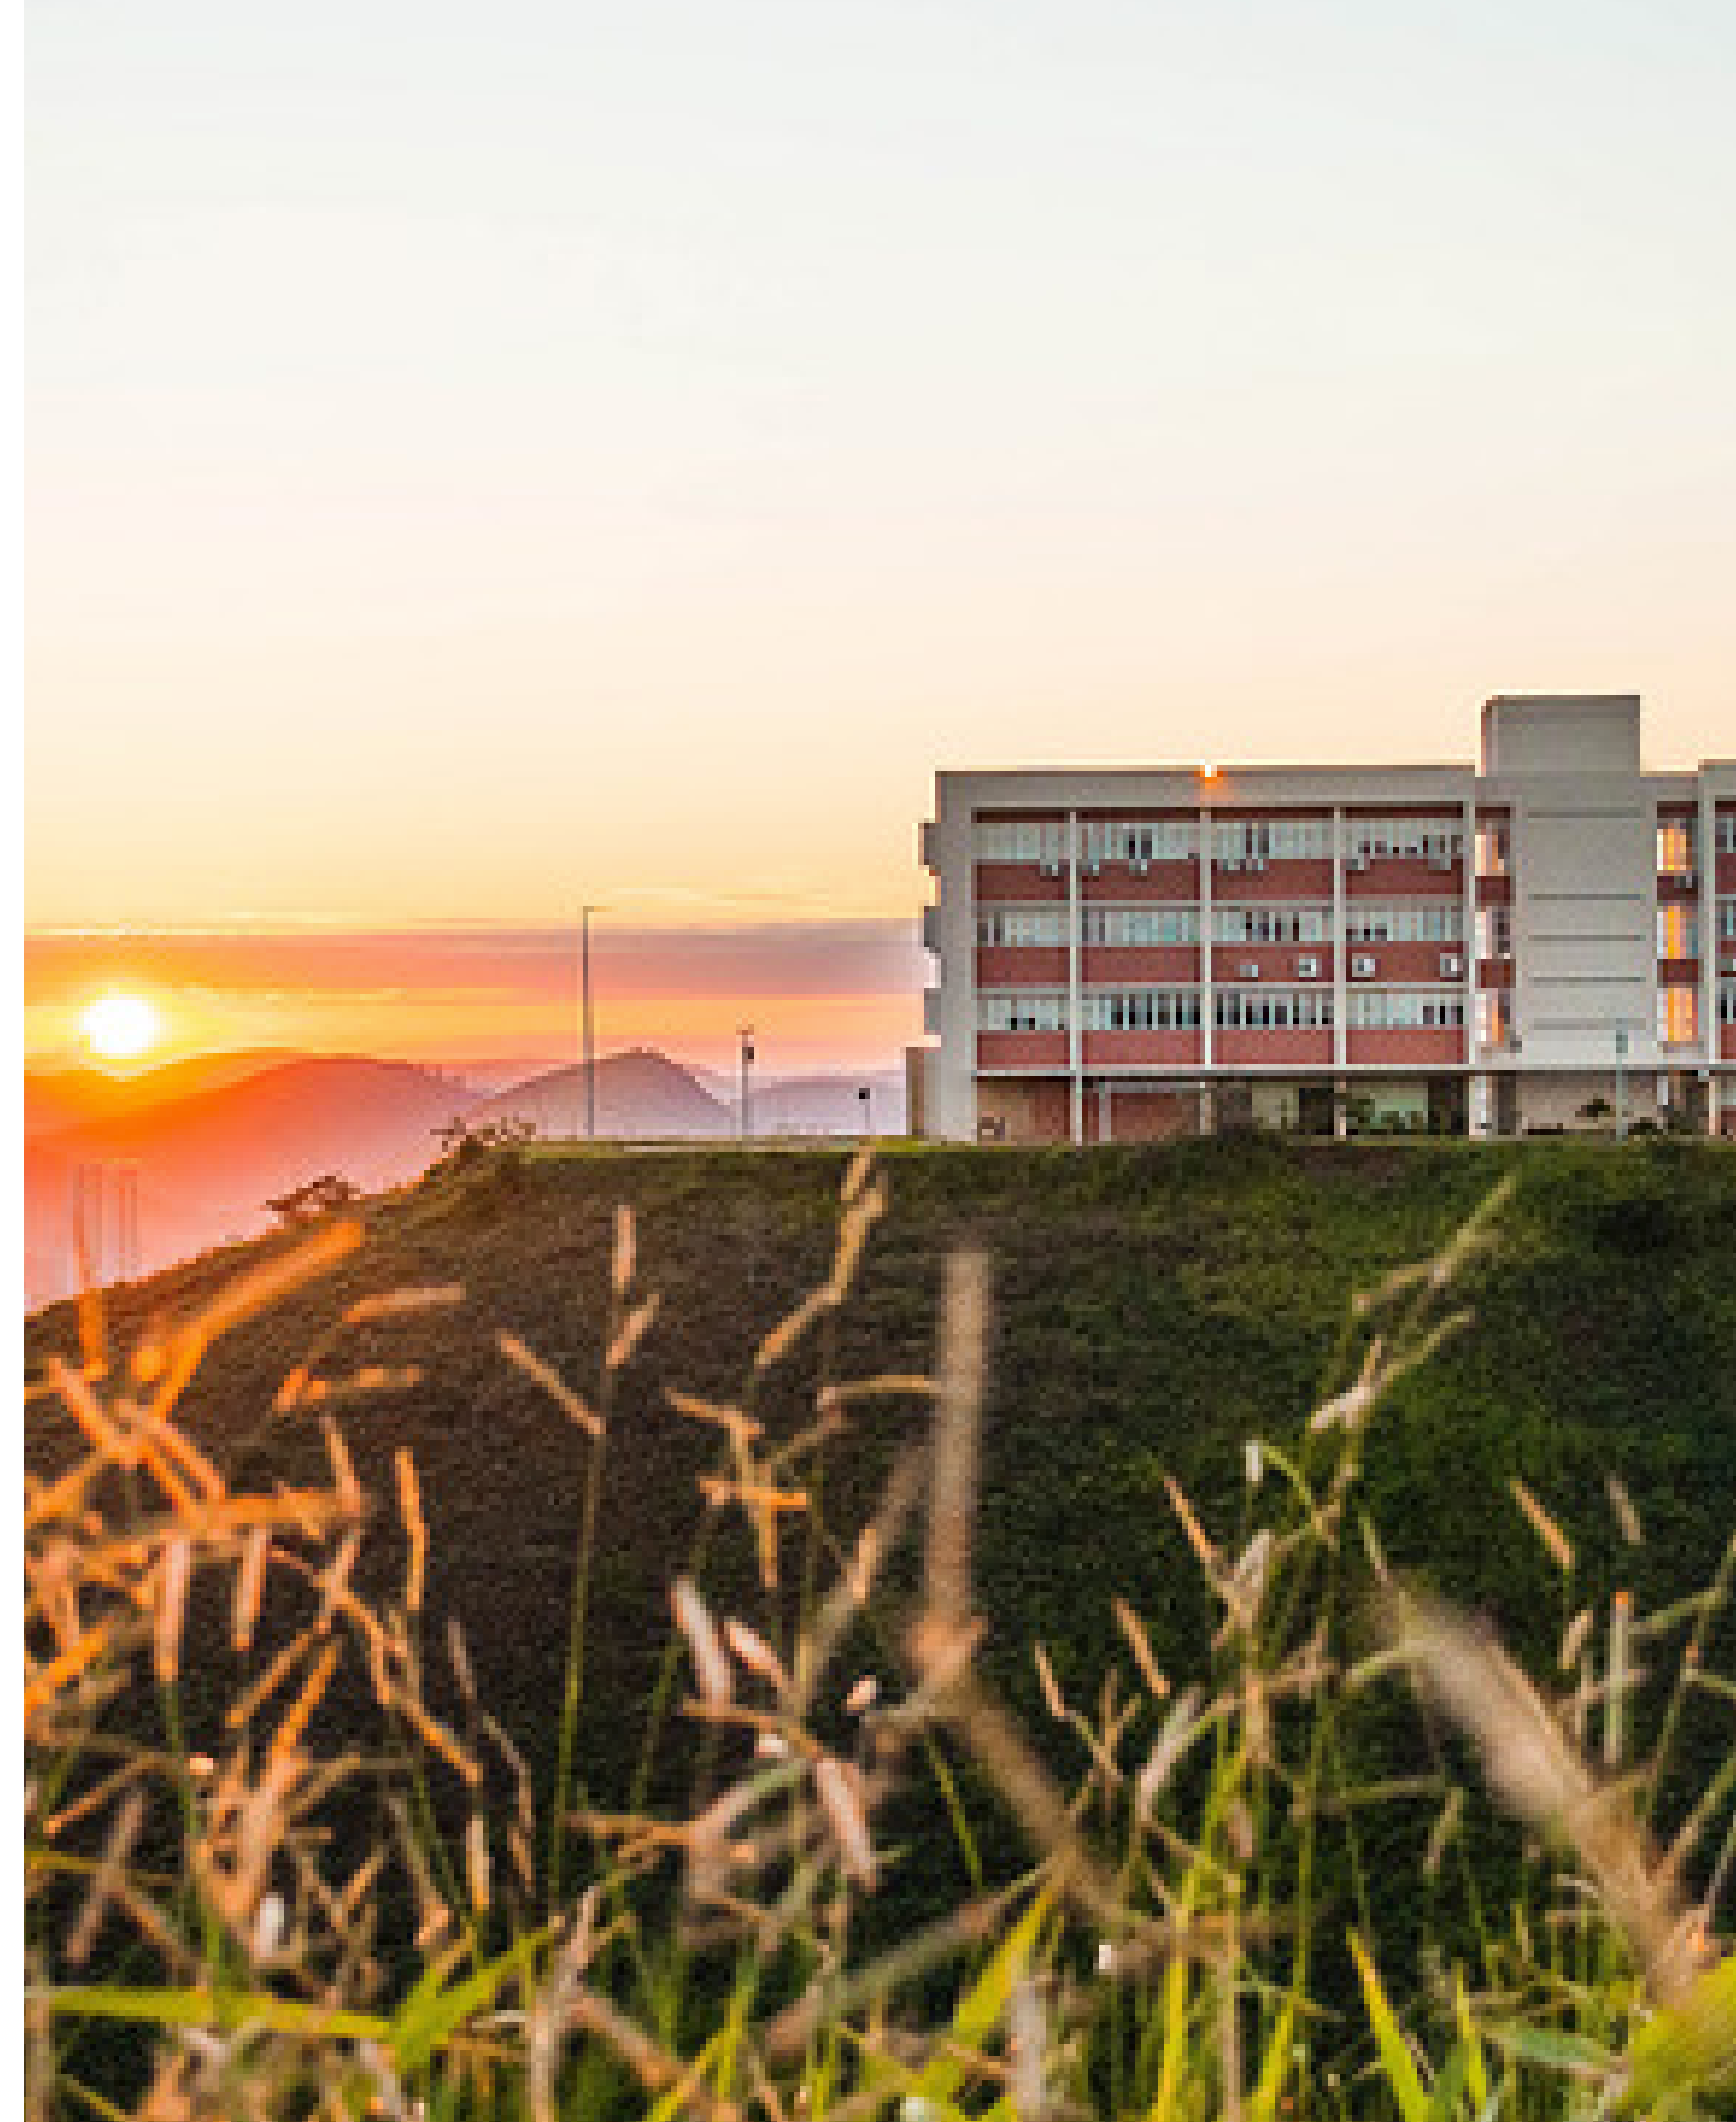

ABOUT US

THE UNIVERSITY

The Federal University of Juiz de Fora (UFJF) is a scientific and cultural center in an area of more than three million inhabitants and is ranked among the best universities in Latin America, with both national and international recognition.

UFJF now has 93 options of undergraduate courses, and 36 master's and 17 doctoral degree courses, in all areas of knowledge. More than 20,000 students walk around its campus on a daily basis, not counting the approximately three thousand students from distance learning.

Constituted as a center of research and knowledge production, UFJF forms ethical, critical, high-quality performance professionals both for the labor market and for the academia who are committed to a juster and egalitarian society.

REQUIREMENTS

AREAS OF STUDY

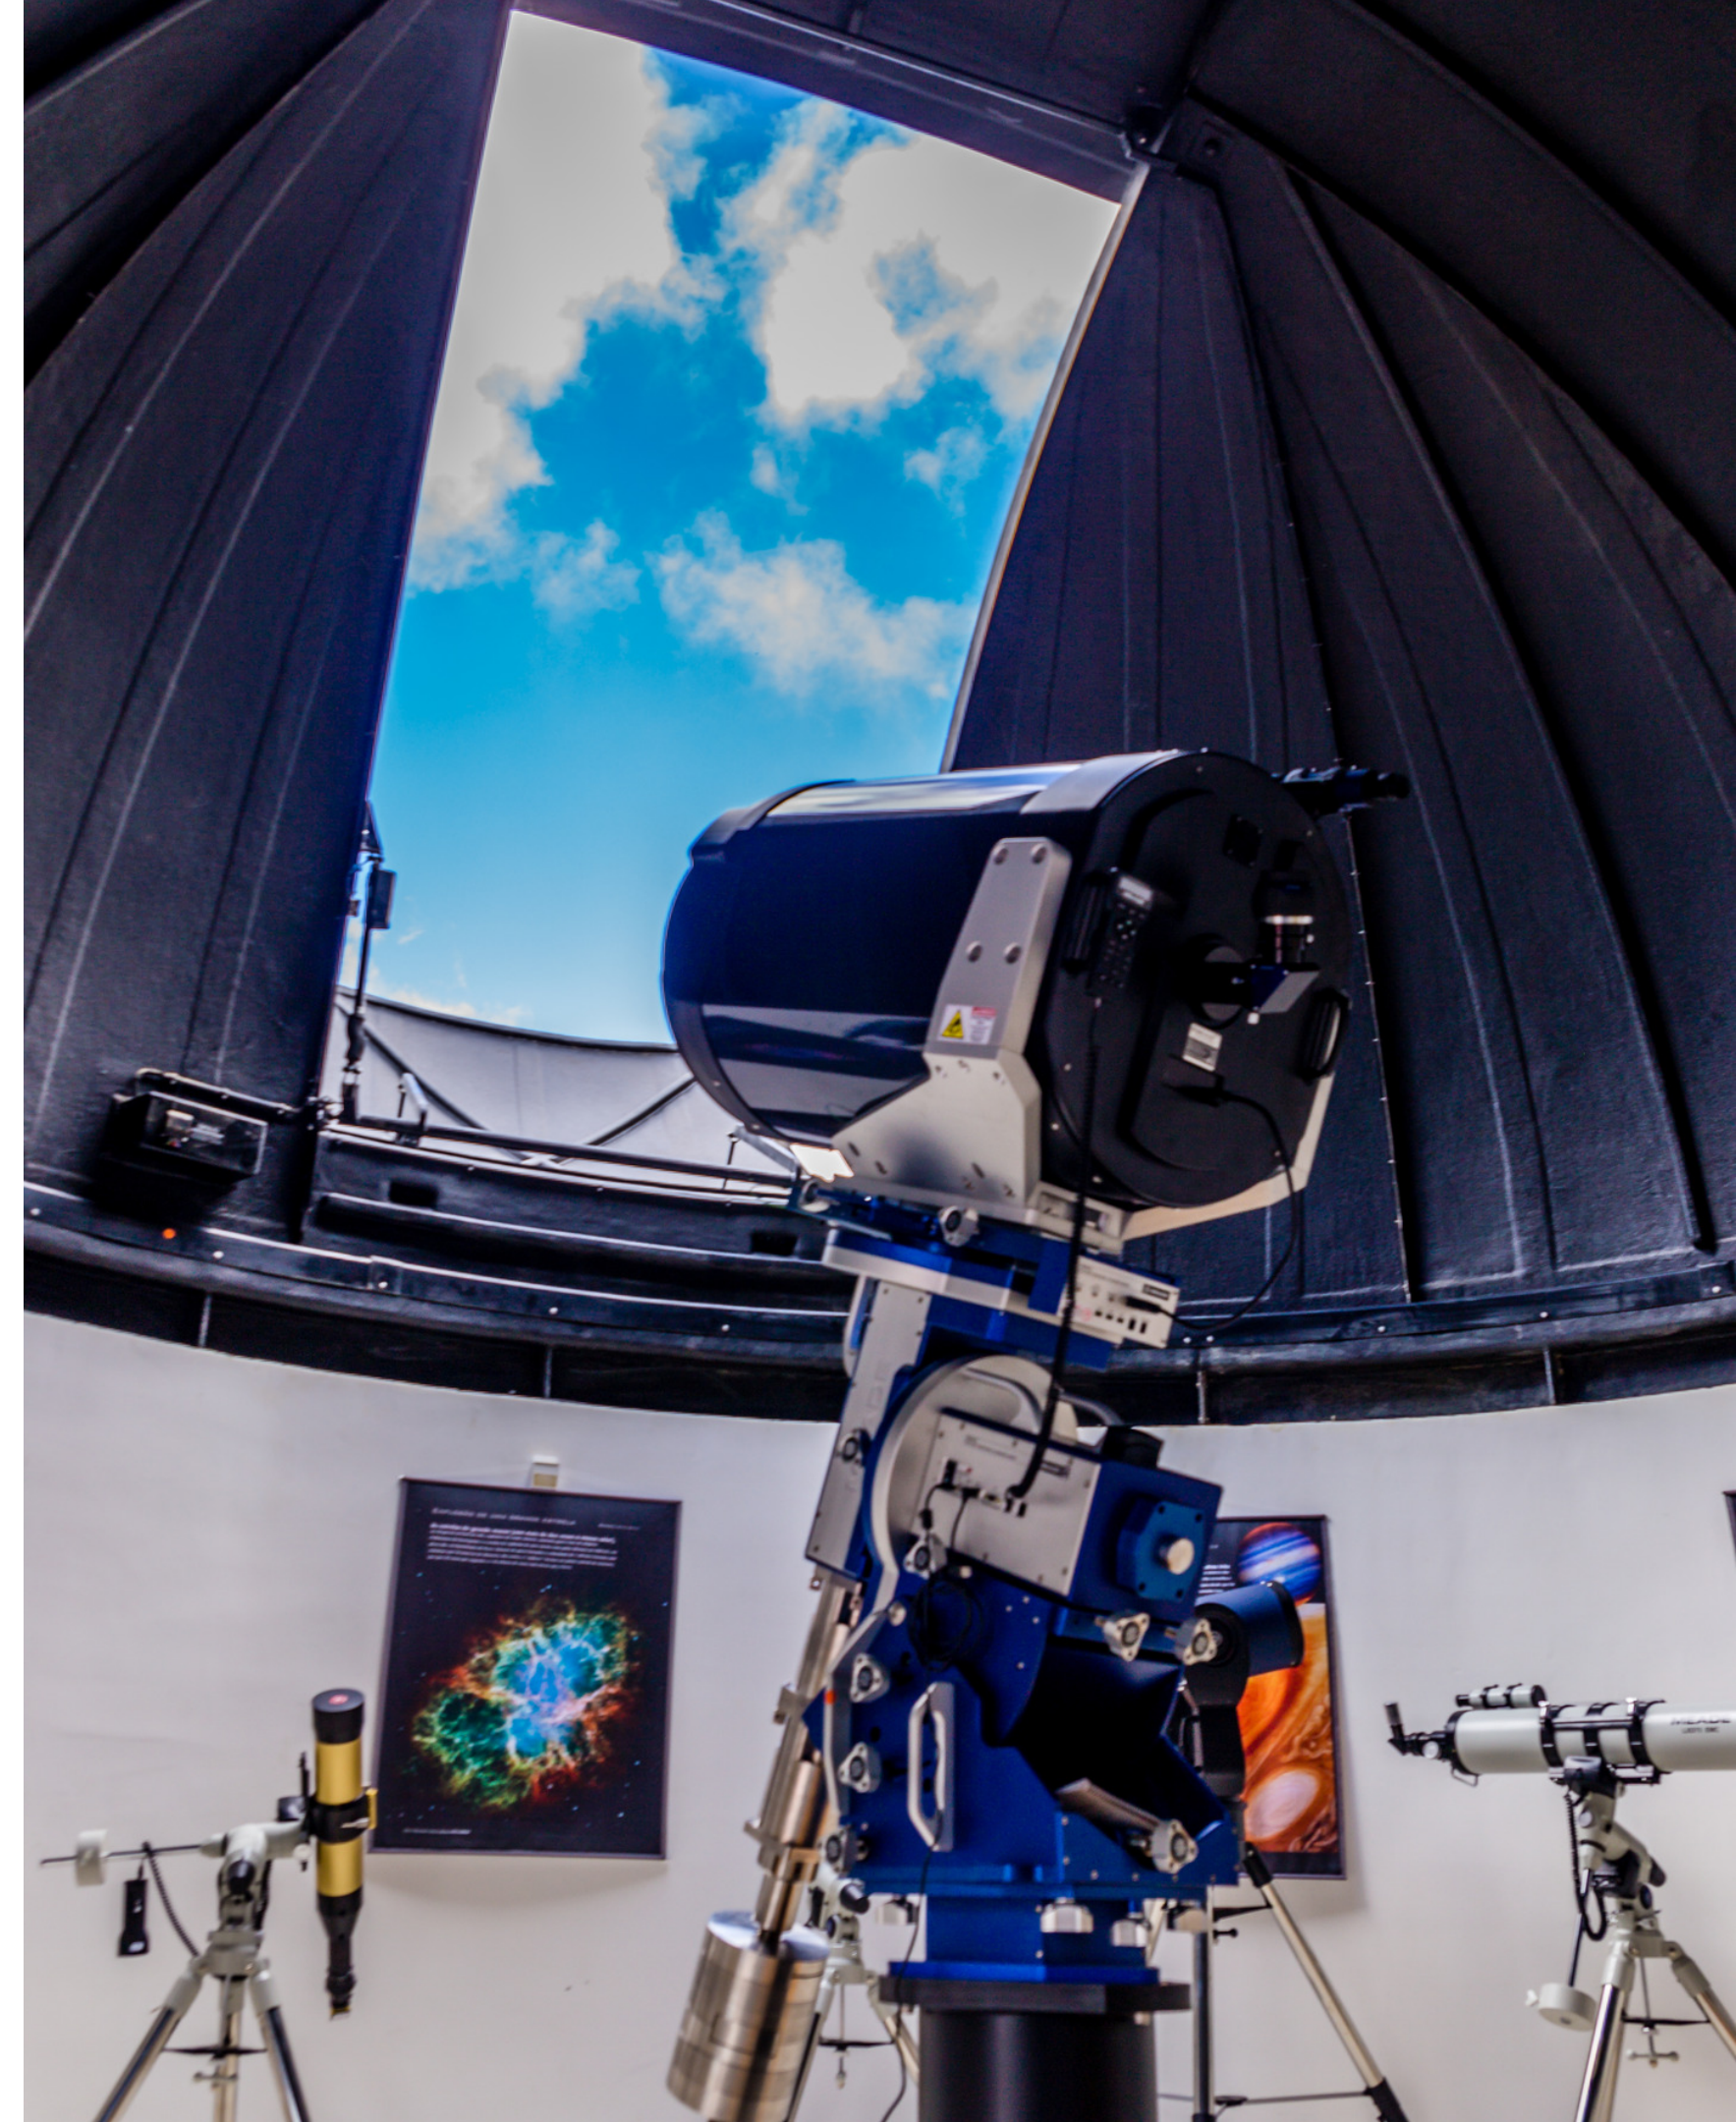

All areas of study are open to exchange students.
Course Catalog (in Portuguese): www.ufjf.br/cat/cursos

Students can check courses by clicking on the names of the school (e.g. “Administração”).

When more than one year (e.g. “2016”; “2017”) is shown, students must choose the most recent one. Any doubts, please contact us.

LANGUAGE REQUIREMENT

Basic knowledge of Portuguese is desirable.
The course “Português para Estrangeiros” - Portuguese for Foreigners - is mandatory and free of charge.
Its offer follows our undergraduate academic calendar.

SCHOLARSHIPS

MAIS IDIOMAS

According to the demand of Brazilian students, we have started our language tutoring program, which consists of classes of at least 5 and up to 20 students taught by international students in their mother tongue. The scholarship pays R$400 (about U$100) per course, but there's a maximum of 3 classrooms per student, totaling up to R$1200,00 (U$300), this is usually enough for their food and housing expenses here in Juiz de Fora. Please make sure to let your students know about this opportunity!

* Please be aware that English, French, Spanish and Italian are not eligible for this program, since UFJF already offers regular courses of those languages.

ACCOMMODATION AND EXPENSES

ACCOMMODATION

UFJF does not provide housing. Students must directly contact local house owners in order to organize their stay and get further information.

UFJF Buddy Program can provide assistance with housing.

Please contact them on Facebook or e-mail:
