Brazil is a big and diverse country; all regions are very different considering climate, culture and accents. Composed by 26 states and the Federal District, Brazil has a continental dimension.

The Federative Republic of Brazil is the fifth largest country in the world and the largest country in Latin America;

Brazil is the fifth most populous country in the world, with over 206 million people (2014 statistics), most of whom are descendants of Europeans and Africans.

There are many places to visit and explore in Brazil.

CURITIBA, PARANÁ STATE

Curitiba is located in the southern region of Brazil and is the capital of the state of Paraná. Only 100 km from the coast, Curitiba offers an easy access to quite and nice beach towns.

Referred to as the ecological capital of Brazil, Curitiba is currently considered one of the best urban planned cities in the world. It became an international model for sustainable development due to the implementation of an integrated urban planning which allowed the city to be considered a reference in regards to public transportation, preservation of the city's cultural heritage, expansion of parks and green areas, and to social and environmental programs.

Curitiba has many places to visit - museums, street fairs, cinemas, theaters, parks and many other attractions.
